FC Alliance (www.fcalliance.com) is the designated premier soccer club for the Northshore Youth Soccer Association and is a charter member of Washington state's elite Regional Club League. In FCA's Premier Juniors program, your child will enjoy fun and interactive instruction from the top level Coaching Staff of FC Alliance soccer club:

Hugo Alcaraz-Cuellar – Hugo played with the Portland Timbers (2002-06) and Seattle Sounders (2007-08). With the Timbers he was the all-time leader in assists and games played and led the USL First Division in assists during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. With the Sounders they won the USL Div. 1 championship and he led the team in assists both seasons. Hugo has 8 years of youth coaching experience. He is the FC Alliance Boy's Youth Director. Hugo holds a USSF B License.

Robin Ross - From State Champions to Regional Success, Robin has led her teams and players to achieve their goals. She has been with FCA for the past year. Prior to this Robin, was with Snohomish United. She has coached at the high school level, as well. Robin holds a USSF C License and is an ICA Fitness and Conditioning Certified coach.

Dave Wymer – Dave has coached 20 years in the Northshore Youth Soccer Association and has been awarded Coach of the Year by both NYSA and FC Alliance. In addition to being a soccer coach, Dave is also a qualified fitness and conditioning trainer as well as a lifetime player of soccer. Dave holds an USSF B License.

Dave Schumacher – Dave is the Coaching Director for FC Alliance, the technical director for the Northshore Youth Soccer Association and is on the US Soccer National Instructional Staff. Dave has been coaching and training coaches for many years. Dave holds a USSF A License and USSF National Youth License.

Santa Maria Rivera - Santa's brilliant defensive play led his Seattle University team to win the 2004 NCAA Division II National Championship. Santa's leadership earned him the Team Captain role at S.U., as well as the Coach's award for 2004 and 2005. Santa followed his college career by playing for the USL Seattle Sounders in 2006 and 2007. Santa holds a USSF "B" Coaching License and has coached premier soccer for five years. In his first year coaching at FCA, Santa led the U10 boys gold team to an undefeated Fall 2011 season.
